Area Wood Producers Given Day At New Virginia Fibre Mill

Friday, June 27 was a special day in Riverville. It was the day that independent wood producers from surrounding counties gathered at the new Virginia Fibre mill for a special indoctrination tour and barbecue. The event was set-up for the 80 attending loggers, land owners and State Foresters by the Wood Procurement group of the Company.

Enjoying the event, shown above from left to right, were Thomas Lucado, Emmett Jamerson, Melvin Moore, Dennis Dobbins, Mike Gibbs and Rhett Mozingo.

With start-up so close at hand, the event was most timely. Once in production, the mill will require some 3,500 cords of pulpwood per week. This continuous need will provide hundreds of loggers in the area with a dependable market for their harvest - - a fact that both Virginia Fibre and the wood producers appreciate.

Local Church Will Send Three Children To Camp

The Appomattox Seventh-Day Adventist Church is searching for three underprivileged children to attend the GOOD NEIGHBOR CAMP at Camp Blue Ridge. The children will spend an entire week, from August 3, 1975 until August 10, 1975, enjoying such activities as horseback ridi;g, canoeing, archery, swimming in a heated outdoor pool, arts and crafts, and outdoor recreation.

If you are interested in attending camp for a week, simply write a short letter stating "why you want to go to camp" no later than July 26 and send your letter to Appomattox Seventh - Day Adventist Church, Court Street.

The camp, located on Route 56, 1 mile east of Montebello in the Blue Ridge Mountains, is accredited by the American Camping Association, and is approved by the state of Virginia. Under the direction of Norman Middag and Del Lovejoy, the camp is manned with a qualified staff of dedicated Christian young people.

The Camp Program is designed to build Christian character in its offering of outdoor living, recreation, nature, and inspirational programs. Connected with Camp Blue Ridge are outpost facilities at Smith Mountain Lake where campers learn water safety, and enjoy diving, sailing, and water skiing.

The Appomattox Seventh-Day Adventist Church would like to sponsor three underprivileged children in the community as a public service. There is no discrimination of sex, race or religion. The only requirement is that children be between the ages of 9 and 13.

The normal fee for campers is $40.00. The Potomac Conference of SDA's and Camp Blue Ridge subsidizes $25.00 and the Appomattox SDA Church sponsors $15 toward each camper.

Take advantage of this opportunity, if you are interested in a camping trip get your letter in the mail before July 26.

Sun and Skin

The only person less receptive to medical warnings than a confirmed smoker is a confirmed sunbather.

The Appomattox County Unit, American Cancer Society plans to hold a skin cancer detection clinic in Appomattox on Sunday, August 17 from 2 to 5 p.m. Make plans now to attend and take advantage of this method to try and detect skin cancer as early as possible.

The American Cancer Society says it is possible to learn how to live with the sun, and not merely hide from it. But the hazards cannot be ignored. Factors are combining to form previously unimagined dangers from overexposure to ultraviolet solar rays.

Skin cancer, caused mostly by overexposure to the sun, is increasing steadily, dermatologists report. The number of new cases each year is estimated to be three to six times what it was thought to be only a few years ago.

Use your good sense when you are out in the sun, don't get overexposed!

In Memorium

IN MEMORY
Day by day one year has passed,
Since God called you away,
And day by day we miss you more
Than words can ever say.

Little did we know when dawned that morning
What sorrow the day would bring,
The end was sudden the shock severe.
To part with one we loved so dear.

You bid no one a last farewell,
You said good-bye to none.
Your loving heart had ceased to beat,
Before we knew you had gone.

God gave us strength to bear it,
And courage to meet the blow.
But what it meant to lose you this world will never know.

We visit your grave so often
And say a little prayer.
That some day soon
We'll meet you up there.

In loving remembrance of my husband, our father and grandfather, Berkely C. Rogers, who departed this life one year ago, July 23, 1975.

In loving memory of my beloved husband, James B. Goin, who passed away one year ago today, July 23, 1974.

Have you ever lost a loved one who was very dear to you?
One you loved so very much
and miss him like I do,
Have you ever had a heartache?
Or ever felt the pain, or ever shed those bitter tears that drop like falling rain?
If you have never had this feeling then I pray you never do,
For when God takes your husband,
He takes a part of you.

Sadly missed by wife,
Marian O. Goin
